Henriette Tilanus is this year's winner of the G-Star RAW Talent Award 2013 supported. With five pieces from her ARTEZ 'Let the dust settle' collection she convinced the international jury to be the most promising young designer out of all graduate students of 2013.

Tilanus colorful pieces were inspired by the stylish world of Lady Edith Sitwell. She experimented with textiles, embroidered on plastics, hand painted checks, dots and bleached striped on denim. She ripped out threads, knitted parts and created abstract flowers from stuff she found in her atelier and on the streets. Textile experiments that resulted into a modern and eccentric womenswear collection.

Tilanus wins a monetary prize of 10.000 euro plus a backstage experience at an international G-star event.
